Miss Oceana

Debbie Sullivan

The 1979 Miss Oceana was crowned January 13, 1979. A candidate and escort were chosen from each class. Miss Oceana was chosen by the penny-a-vote method with proceeds being used for the yearbook.

The senior class candidate was Debbie Sullivan who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sullivan of Matheny. Debbie was escorted by Eric Smith, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith of Oceana.

Lisa Lugar, the first attendant, was the junior class candidate. She is the daughter of Ms. Linda Lugar and Mr. Fred Lugar of Oceana. Lisa was escorted by Steve Vinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Vinson of Cyclone.

The sophomore candidate was Barbi Ricotta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ricotta of Oceana. Barbi was escorted by Bud Bane who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bane of Oceana.

The freshman class candidate was Tammy Lusk, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lusk of Cyclone. Tammy was escorted by Jeff Lambert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Lambert of Matheny.

The new Miss Oceana is Debbie Sullivan. She was crowned by last year's Miss Oceana, Susan Snider, who was escorted by Wyoming County Board of Education member, Frank Laxton, Jr. Crownbearers were Miss Jennifer Knowles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Knowles of Princeton. Jennifer was escorted by Jimmy Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Martin of Cyclone.

All of the candidates really worked hard and the yearbook would like to extend its appreciation for all their effort.

Robert P. Knight

We, the yearbook staff, would like to take this opportunity to recognize the many contributions Mr. Robert Knight has made to OHS in the 25 years he has been teaching here.

Mr. Knight graduated from Pineville High School in 1945. He then went on to attend Berea College where he received his BS in Business Administration — Education. He later attained his MA in Business — Administration — Education from Marshall University. He has also completed the required course work toward a doctorate degree at Indiana University.

He began teaching at OHS in 1954 but was drafted into the Army where he served for two years. After returning to OHS in 1956, he taught such subjects as typing, shorthand, and business machines. In addition to his teaching duties, he was a sophomore sponsor for one year and has been a senior sponsor for 22 years. He also served as the yearbook sponsor for 3 years.

Mr. Knight is leaving us this year to become the Business Administrator for the Wyoming County Board of Education.

Countless students have passed through Mr. Knight's classes in his 25 years at OHS and all have found him to be a warm, kind, dedicated teacher. He shows a deep concern and interest in his students that is greatly appreciated by everyone. Mr. Knight will leave behind a place in our hearts and lives that will be truly hard to fill.

Principal Ira Cook, Jr. stated, "Mr. Knight is a unique person . . . a master teacher . . . a professional."

We want to extend our sincerest wishes for his continued success and happiness in his new position.

Dear Friends,

It's now time for me to leave Oceana, Oceana High School, West Virginia, the U.S.A., and you, my friends.

I want to thank you all for being so wonderful, nice, and helpful.

You all know how unhappy I was when I came, but you must know that, for every day that went by you helped me to like it more and more, and now I hate to leave you and Oceana. I love you all, and I always will remember you in my heart.

And now I wish I could say good-bye and see you again instead of farewell.

I love you.

You are cordially invited to attend:

WHAT: THE REUNION OF THE CLASS OF '79
WHEN: JUNE 3, 1989
WHERE: DEVIL'S ISLAND (SOMEWHERE IN THE TROPICAL NORTH POLE)

We always knew there was something different about the class of '79. After all, the teachers were always saying so. However, we never realized just how different they were until we started trying to locate them for the reunion. Here's what we found them doing after 10 years.

That wild and crazy guy, Denny Thompson, is still entertaining. He really cheers up his fellow inmates in Attica prison. He was arrested for his own protection after customers at Brenda Martin's Laugh Emporium heard his jokes. Arresting officer Dorothy Stone had to be rushed to the emergency ward of the local hospital where she was attended by resident psychiatrist Dr. Kenneth Stepp. According to Dr. Stepp's nurse, Carol Varney, it was the worst case of the infamous laughter syndrome ever to be admitted to the Danny Thornsby Memorial Hospital.

Eric Smith and Jeff Runyon still spend their time chasing fire trucks. Eric's wife, Trena Marcum, and Jeff's wife, Jeanine Morgan, say they are forced to sound a fire alarm to get their husbands to come home. Psychiatrist Tammy Osborne says there is a slight chance they will outgrow this condition, but it's very slim.

Several of the class of '79 went into show business. John "Doc" Stewart is billed as The Man With the Iron Head in Jimmy Bush's circus. His resident clown is Diahanne Cook. Scott Hatten acts as his ringmaster. Larry Allen became a lion tamer. Timmy Buffington became a radio announcer. He gives his rendition of Little Red Riding Hood every evening over station WKLI-Huff Creek, which is owned by Dennis Lester. Kathy Cook makes her living singing original compositions at the Vegas branch of Chuck Cooper's Nightclubs for the Entertainment of Depraved Audiences.

Johnny Cook publishes his own version of Sixteen magazine called Sexteen. His editor-in-chief is Rodney Bradford and his chief photographer is Denver Madden. Donna Cox writes editorials against Sexteen for Peggy Cobb's newspaper, News and Views. After reading her editorial, sculptor Clay Morgan wrote a letter to the editor protesting that if it wasn't for Sexteen he wouldn't be able to come up with any new ideas for his masterpieces. However, his agent Rosemary Bryant says he could use a new source of ideas. She, herself, is an avid reader of Rosetta Bailey's magazine Make War Not Love.

Teresa Toler became a millionaire with the publication of her autobiography, If Only You Knew. Her publisher Sandra Brunty is ecstatic. However, CIA investigator Greg Lambert is frantically investigating to find out just what it is he doesn't know. Unfortunately, he doesn't know where to start so he's hired detective Gerald Brown to find out for him. Marsha Bryant fancies herself as the Mata Hari of the 1980's and has sworn to find out first. Bookie Kenny Davis is laying 3 to 1 odds in Marsha's favor.

Chris Davis made a fortune on the stock market. However, financier Steve Lambert grew suspicious of his methods and reported him to the Senate Investigating Committee on Fraud, headed by Gary Miller. Also under investigation is shipping magnate Greg Pennington. His lawyer, Susan McKee Blankenship, holds high hopes of having him acquitted.

Donald Burgess became a famous race car driver. Unfortunately, he crashed in his last race and was rushed to the hospital where he was attended by Dr. Susie Cozort. Undertaker Randy Gibson thought at first his services might be needed but Donald pulled through.

Vondie Brunty became America's latest sex symbol. According to his publicity manager Carrol Lusk, Vondie is scheduled to appear in his next movie with actress Leslie Walker. Vondie's lawyer Kenny Daniels is busy handling his fifth divorce. Judge Brenda Brown is scheduled to hear the case.

Ellen Griffith is Playboy magazine's latest centerfold. Marsha Woolwine and her dancing partner Tracy Cox are the latest stars on the disco scene. Randy Lusk owns a chain of discotheques from New York to California. He's been trying to get Rodney Burchett and his band to appear for months but so far hasn't been able to get Rodney's manager Arlene Cline to agree on the salary.

Several of the class of '79 made names for themselves in the world of business. Tami Pafford and Karen Pendry became top executives in the wor famous CIM (Criminally Intelligent Mobsters). Francine Carter is the President's private secretary and Terri Duncan, Mary May, and Suzanne Biggs all have jobs on Capitol Hill.

Beth Asbury founded a school for the musically inclined, where Marsha Hannah, Cindy Runyon, and Janet Puckett are teachers. Kenny Williams took lessons for a while but decided he was already better than his teachers.

David Allen was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Also in sports, Margie Hood has made a name for herself as the first professional female basketball player on a formerly all male team. Angie Allen become a Dallas Cowboy cheerleader. Caroline Jonsson won a gold medal for gymnastics in the 1984 Olympics.

Debbie Sullivan married a Greek tycoon and is now wearing Dion originals. Tina Maynard spends her time flying all over the world in her private jet. Cindy Hunt just made the Ten Best Dressed Women list for the fourth year in a row. Craig McDavid became the original millionaire — Vegas, Paris, Monte Carlo — he knows them well.

Weight lifter Ricky Brown just broke the world record. Robin Aliff is the new Miss America while Derek Whitten is the new Mr. Universe. Speaking of beauty pageants, Barry Nottingham was the emcee for the last Miss Universe pageant. Joe Eldridge was the cameraman for the program and Johnny Maynard was its executive producer.

David McMillion, Barry Nichols, and Randy Morrell were arrested in a street gang war in Cleveland. Terry Dancy made the Ten Most Wanted list for stealing the crown jewels of England. He's said to be living in South America at the present time. Danny Stewart became a double agent. His code number is 00½.

Arlin Walker is designing cars for General Motors. Vikki Wilson has her own art gallery in New York. Susan Summers acts as a buyer for her and travels all over the world in search of works of art. Pam Speaks became a fashion designer of international reputo. Her bookkeeper James Stewart says her bank account is unbelievable. IRS investigator Rena Brown Stewart doesn't believe it and intends to prove it can't be right.

Delores Browning Runyon and Lynn Canterbury Daniels are contented wives and mothers. Bethel Cook Cline just had her second set of twins. Mary Whittington teaches home economics in a high school in Florida.

Carlton Rinehart is on a safari somewhere in darkest Africa. Sherry Hatten and Teresa Osborne are in Egypt digging up the ruins of a newly discovered tomb. John Perry IS working as a geologist somewhere in England. Sandra Stewart went to Scotland and married a Scottish lord. Pam Morgan is busy trying to prove that the Loch Ness monster really does exist. Lois Straley became a deep-sea diver and helped salvage the wreck of the Titanic. Unfortunately, Captain Dana Spears lost it on the way back home. Insurance investigator Connie Osborne is still trying to figure out how you could lose something as big as the Titanic. Actually, diabolical scientist Terri England developed a miniaturizing ray and shrunk it. But disaster struck. Her assistant, Kathy Blackburn gave it too much power and the ship disappeared completely.

Tena Carter discovered the lost city of Atlantis. She took Jesse Brown, Mark Cook, Carrie Cook, Doug Pelphrey, and Debbie Webb along with her to found a colony. Doug McKee and Larry Staton decided to go along and try their hand at diving for pearls. Barry Brunty went with them but got caught in a giant oyster shell and turned into a giant pearl. Dianne Duty found him and sold him to a museum for $250,000.

Loretta Carter works in the government's research facilities on the island of Oahu. She and her assistant Lori Trull are busy working on a program to cause all of the world's computers to explode. Annette Linville is the secretary for the Chief of Scotland Yard. Tammy Bailey and Debbie Johnson are commentators for FIGS — Poland. Debbie Brown watched their program once and immediately organized a protest against them. Jennifer Cline marched along with them but got lost along the way.

In France, Regina Toler and Karen Terry have opened their own perfume factory. Jeff Stroupe acts as their resident chemist. (He's still trying to explain how he accidentally blew up the lab.) Sherry Stewart was their resident sampler until she developed an allergy to their perfume. Marvin Stennett sells their perfumes door-to-door. However, he never makes a profit because he keeps giving free samples to all the pretty women he meets.

Well, here we are on that tropical paradise Devil's Island. But, wait a minute! What's that strange crackling sound? Is that brimstone I smell? Oh, no! Help! We're burning!

Now you know why they called it Devil's Island. (The devil made us have the reunion here.)

HOWARD MARTIN GOODWIN
May 25, 1962 — April 27, 1979

One brilliant sun in a sky of blue,
One perfect rose sparkling with dew,
One golden friendship — tried and true
Reminds us that there was just one you!

OHS Yearbook Staff

The yearbook staff consisted of 16 members this year: 6 seniors; 6 juniors; 2 sophomores; and 2 freshmen. They were responsible for raising approximately $6500, for the publication of the yearbook and all incidental expenses. Efforts to raise money included selling ads, the Miss Oceana competition, selling jerseys, and sponsoring a gong show.

One of the activities the yearbook staff participated in this year was the yearbook workshop at Morris Harvey College, sponsored by the American Yearbook Company.

Two members of the yearbook staff were inducted into the International Quill and Scroll this year. They were Loretta Carter and Tami Pafford. Randy Lusk is the only other staff member to be a member of Quill and Scroll. This is the highest honor a high school student in a journalistic activity can achieve.

Seniors leaving this year are: co-editors Randy Lusk, Tami Pafford, and Loretta Carter; associate editor Karen Pendry; sports editor Tracy Cox; and staff member Teresa Toler.

FAREWELL, CLASS OF '79

What will we do now?

You tell me.

The hour glass sand has slipped through.

The precious hands of time have weighed us down,

But only for our new journey.

Though our lives have been like winding roads wondering which way to go next with uncertainty.

We long to live our lives and long to trust our dreams on what will be.

We may still have time;

We may still get by.

Let this go on forever.

REFLECTIONS OF OUR PAST

The year was 1967 when most of us first set foot on the path of education. It was a frightening experience for most of us. A new way of life was beginning. Our old life was changing; it was like a piece of clay slowly acquiring a distinct shape with the master touch of the sculptor. Life is the ultimate sculptor.

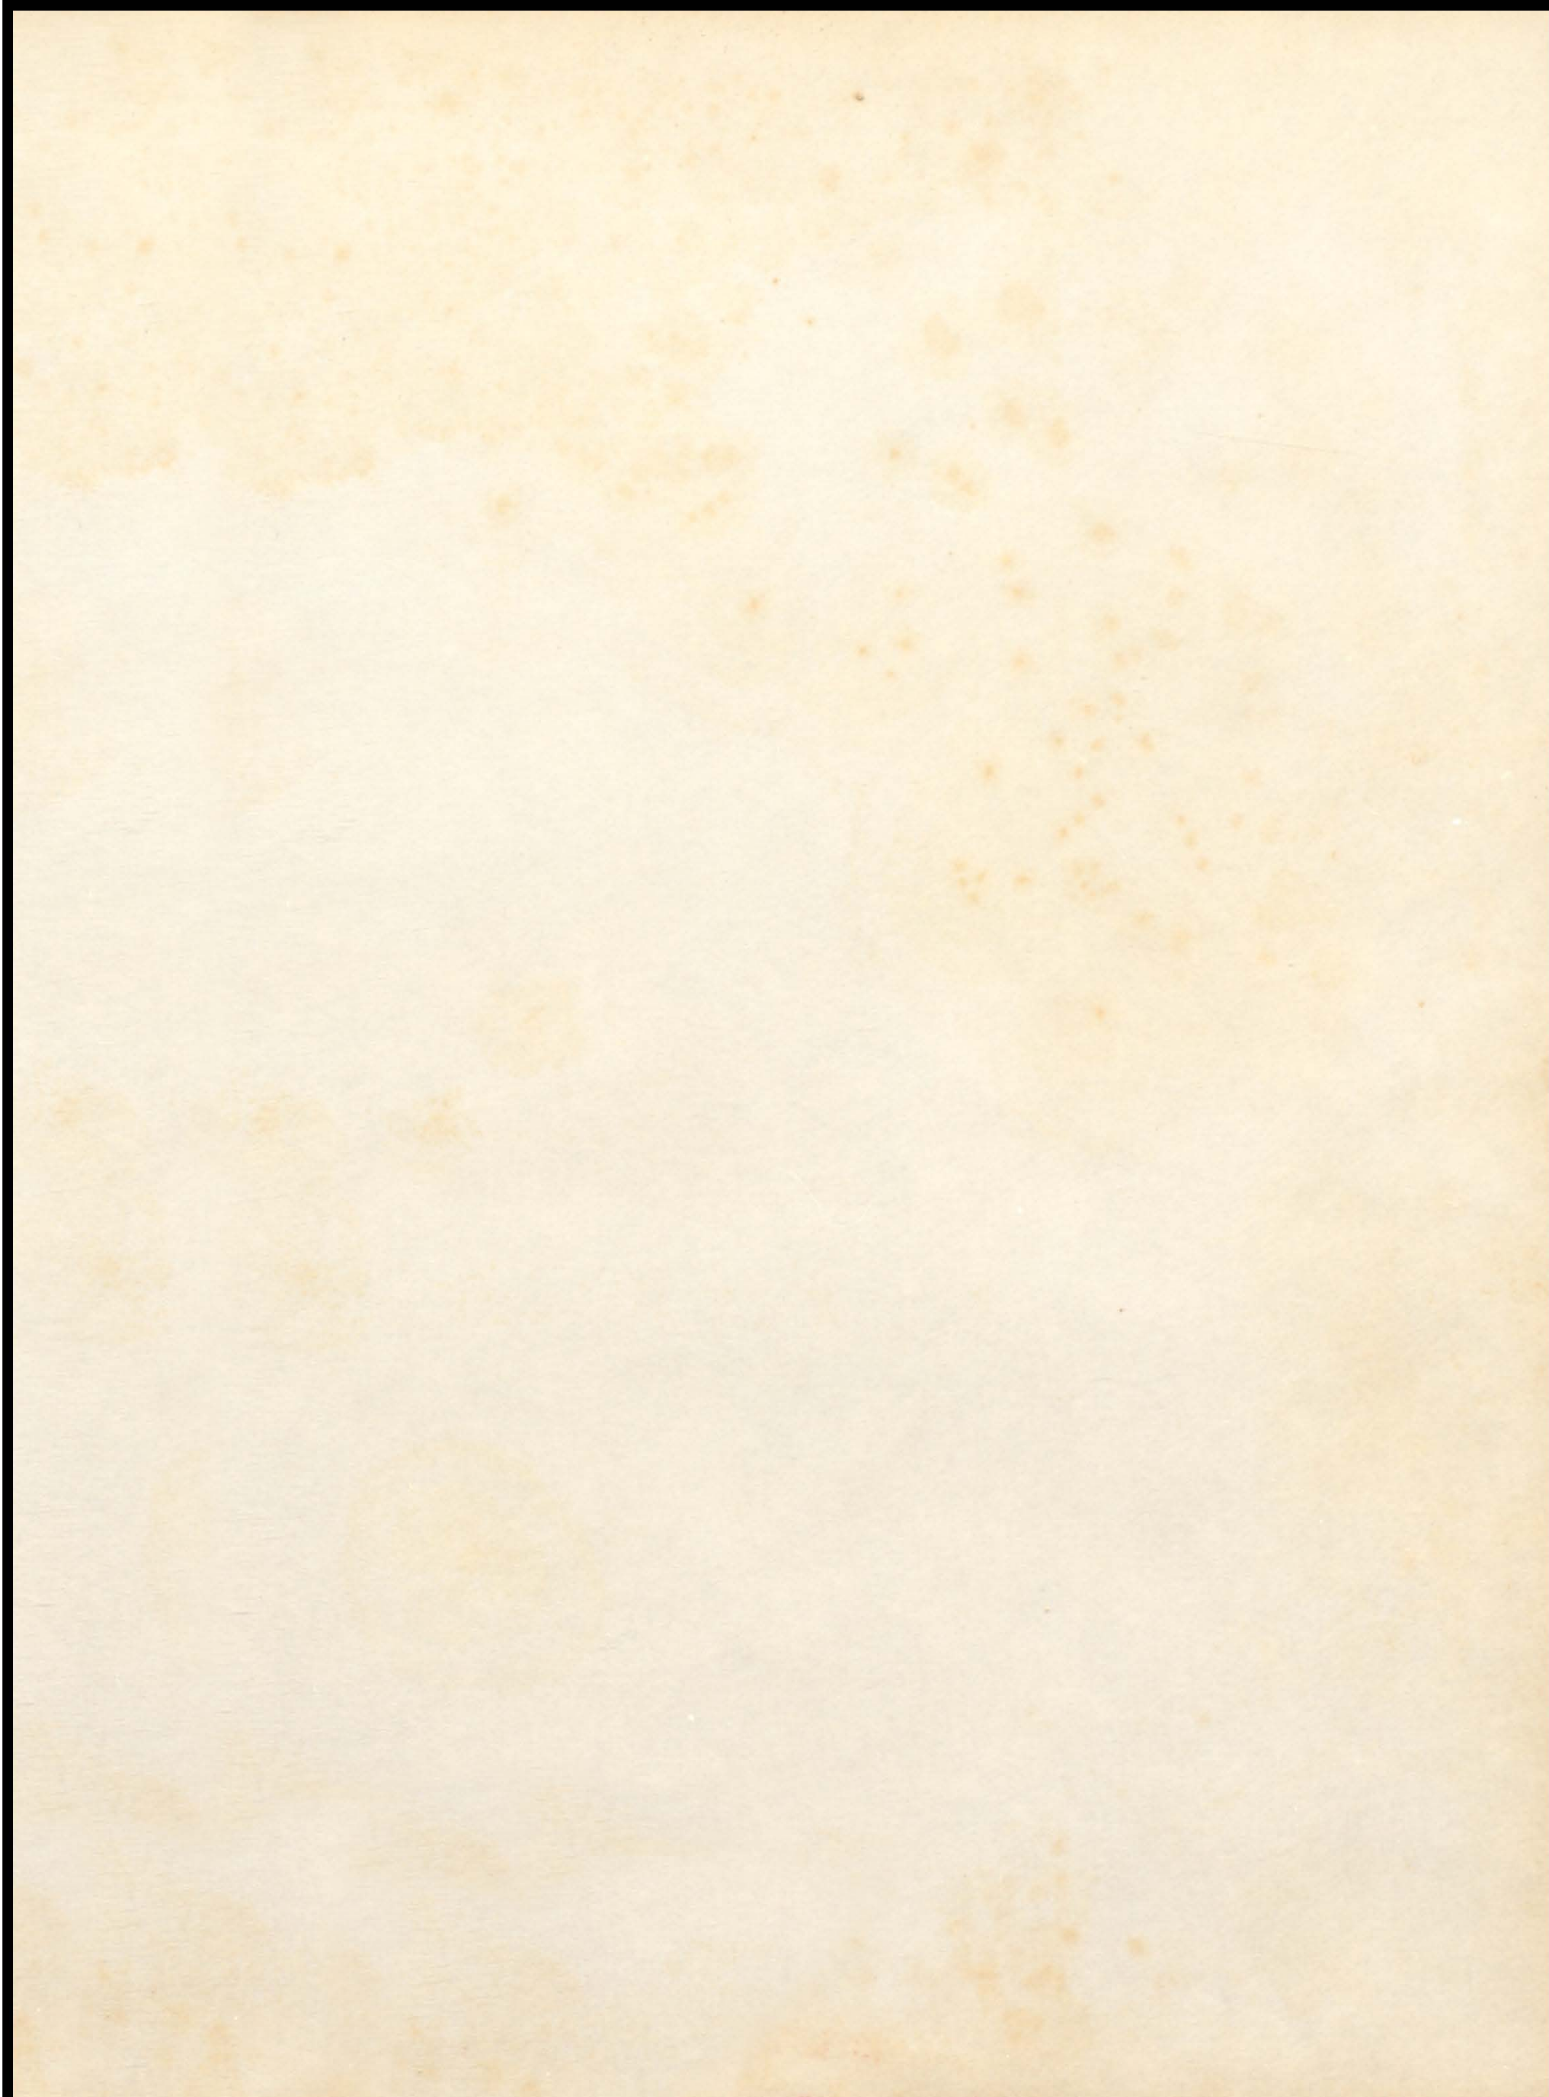

Slowly we progressed through those early years. At times it seemed as if they would never pass; at other times we wondered where yesterday had gone.

The class of '79 was in on the making of history. We saw the first man set foot on the moon. A president was assassinated during our lifetime. Another was almost impeached. We lived through one of the biggest political scandals in the history of our country: Watergate. We saw a man become vice-president and then president without ever being elected to that office. One of the greatest civil rights leaders in history was assassinated during our lifetime. We saw the birth of the world's first test tube baby and said goodbye to some of the biggest names in show business: Elvis Presley, Bing Crosby, Guy Lombardo, Charlie Chaplin, Irving Berlin. History was reshaped during our lives.

And now for many of us the end of that path is at hand. Yesterday is no more; there is only tomorrow. But what we do and what we become will be due in a large part to the events of our four years at Oceana High. It's a large part of our past and a part of our future. It's a factor in the shaping of our destinies.
